

Profile of a Joy-Giving Servant- Phil. 2:19-30
Discussion Questions

1. In what ways do people sometimes serve out of self-interest? Is it wrong to serve with self-interests? When is it okay?

2. Read Phil 2:20-21. What is the association between Timothy's genuine concern for the Philippians, and the fact that he seeks the interests of Christ?

3. In Phil 2:25, Paul refers to Epaphroditus as a brother, a fellow worker, and a fellow soldier. What are some implications of each type of relationship?

4. If you currently serve in any way, what kind of interaction do you have with the people you serve? How can you serve and show your concern for their interests/needs?
